

JOB 4 TEACHER.com
International Recruiting Co., Inc.

John Karr

RESUME

Bachelor of Science: Magna Cum Laude, Regents College, Albany New York USA

Mission: To provide excellence in education that develops academic and technological skills, instills strong superior character, develops interpersonal skills and nurtures leadership qualities amongst students to prepare them for a successful future with the expectation that such an education will result in a student of superior

Experience and Qualifications:

La Esperanza School (Honduras, Central America) 2004-2005 as follows:

Grade 2 Homeroom Teacher - (LES 2004-2005) self-contained grade two classroom. I taught all subjects - Language, Reading, Math, Spelling, Social Studies, Health, Art, Music, Physical Education, Computer Tec and Agriculture. I prepared weekly lesson plans, created weekly teacher-made examinations, and recorded every six weeks in student report cards.

Computer Technology Teacher - (LES 2004-2005) (Grades 1 through 8) Upper grades designed presentat created documents, based on themes, in Microsoft Office Suite XP. Lower grades learned English through interactive language software. I maintained all computers in the lab including hardware and software upgra repairs.

Director of English - (LES 2004-2005) in charge of recruiting new teachers of English. Duties included teach mentoring and advisement; monitoring teachers in the classroom; collecting and checking lessons plans of English teachers; curriculum development including selection of books and materials in the area of English Science and Social Studies; and schedule development for all subjects taught in English.

Librarian - (LES 2004-2005) Designed and maintained a small library with literature in English for grades 1 8. Book check-out and retrieval for students. Organization and presentation of books and media such as te VCR and DVD player, etc. Storytime for grades 1 through 3.

-Teacher of English (Costa Rica): Pro English: English instruction for corporate executive clients in the Sar Costa Rica area.

-Private Teacher / Caregiver (2002-03 in Western Europe) as follows:

Germany: Three girls - 7, 11, and 12: I taught English to the girls through conversational and instructional r I gave computer instruction to the girls via their laptop PC's. I drove the girls to their activities: ballet, riding, handball, etc. I assisted the girls with their homework.

Germany: Two girls - 5 and 8; boy 10: I taught English to the children through conversational and instructic methods. I awoke the children in the morning and gave them breakfast. I helped the children get ready for and escorted them to the school bus. I helped the 8 year old girl with her homework each day. I took the children outside for play. At days end, I made sure the children had their evening bath, then put them to bed and read to them before they went to sleep.

Netherlands: Baby girl 9 months, boy 3, and girl 4: I taught English to the three year old boy and four year old girl through conversational and instructional methods. I was very attentive to needs of the baby which included changing, feeding, and bathing her. I helped the baby when she learned to walk at 10 and a half months. I encouraged independence in the children's activities.

-Teacher of English (2001-2002 Asia and Western Europe) as follows:

Seoul, Korea: I was a classroom teacher of English for children aged 6 to 12. Duties included planning lessons, conducting classes as the sole teacher in the classroom, making assignments, and issuing grades. I taught 4 classes per week. The classes were 45 minutes in duration with an average class size of 18.

Heemstede, Netherlands: I volunteered as an English teacher at an atheneum school, planning and conducting activities revolving around English and the U.S. culture.

-Primary School Teacher (1996-2001 and Currently) in some of the most prestigious schools in the United States working with children from high profile families. I have taught all classes to elementary students including English, Math, Science, Reading, Social Studies, History, and Computer Technology. I have taught Physical Education. I have worked with large groups of 100 to 150 students, ages 5 to 10. I have worked with large groups of children in school playgrounds.

-Private English, Reading and Math Tutor (1996-2001) for elementary students ages 8 to 12 on a private basis at an hourly rate.

-Computer Instruction (1998-1999) for children in primary school and adults in community college. Instructed adults including Microsoft Word, Powerpoint, and Internet, using mostly the Windows PC environment but also including the Macintosh operating system.

-Computer Technology Proficiency (1996-2004) creation of PC's from the ground up. Hardware/Software upgrades and diagnostics. HTML web design creating mailto, meta tags, html links and overall artistic design.

-Real estate (1981-1996) Privately owned rental business. Restoration of mansions from the Queen Victoria era.

-Interests and Abilities: ability to read music and play several musical instruments; singer/songwriter; writer of books and articles; acting.

-World Travelled: London, Paris, Amsterdam, Zurich, Milan, Bologna, Stuttgart, Munich, Sydney Australia, Singapore, Seoul Korea, Osaka Japan, Istanbul, Reunion Island off the coast of Madagascar, Atlanta, Dallas, Los Angeles, San Francisco, and a host of other cities in the United States.