

regulations but will be available for review by the Plaintiffs. However, Plaintiffs must return the information to the CQIO and cannot use it in any way against DH. If the auditor makes any recommendations for changes in procedures and policies, DH will consider the recommendations. ($50,000-$75,000)

Introduction to our experts. Information, including summaries and a good faith representation of the substance for such opinions regarding the opinions offered to date. ($100,000)

As required by law, the individual named defendants will be reported to their individual licensing boards. If any regulatory agency takes action, DH will evaluate this new information and may take employment action as permitted by its principles and practices. DH will evaluate the information discovered in this litigation and may take employment action as permitted by its principles and practices.

Dr. Gabow is willing to meet with the family at their request and at a place of their choosing again in six months to give them a "report card." ($5,000)