RTD holding public meetings for August 2008 Proposed Service Changes

UPDATE: Public Meeting Added in Aurora

Denver – The Regional Transportation District (RTD) is holding a series of public hearings in June to answer questions and solicit public comments concerning the proposed service changes for August 2008. Staff members will be on hand to explain the proposed changes and to answer questions. Feedback from the hearings will be summarized and reported to the RTD Board of Directors at the regularly scheduled monthly June Board meeting, when final approval will be requested. Service changes are made three times per year to improve the overall quality and efficiency of the RTD system.
